

Cma - 1052 Rivershore Avenue, Polk County, FL, 33809

Generated: May 21, 2026

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Congratulations on considering 1052 Rivershore Avenue! This property is an outstanding opportunity, particularly due to its desirable waterfront location, recent construction date of 2019, and the thoughtful updates and fenced yard. It represents a highly desirable single-family home in a prime area.

We believe that your home's prime location combined with its turnkey condition and desirable features makes it a standout listing. Our goal with this presentation is to provide a clear, data-driven strategy to maximize your return by accurately positioning your home within the current market landscape.

We have analyzed recent comparable sales to ensure that our recommended pricing strategy is both competitive and reflective of the high quality and curb appeal of 1052 Rivershore Avenue.

COMPARABLE ANALYSIS

A thorough review of comparable sales shows the strong value in this neighborhood. Each comparable helps us understand what buyers are currently willing to pay for similar properties in the immediate area.

* 1046 Rivershore Ave: This sale is highly valuable as it is on the same street, giving us a direct comparison point. The sale price of $325,000 helps establish immediate neighborhood valuation metrics. * 1525 Slash Pine Rd: This sale shows the market values larger, fully equipped homes. The comparable features 2,254 sqft, including three bathrooms, demonstrating buyer demand for additional space and amenities. * 26 5428 Weber Pl: This comp highlights the upper end of the market, showcasing that when a property features maximum size (2,400 sqft) and additional luxury features (5 bedrooms), the market supports a higher sale price of $353,500. * 1052 Rivershore Ave (Larger Comp): While this comparable features a significantly larger footprint, the sale price helps ground the overall average market value within the Rivershore Avenue segment, indicating the general high-end range of the area.

Collectively, these sales demonstrate that while market values vary based on square footage and specific amenities, the overall area supports substantial real estate value.

PRICING RATIONALE

Based on the current local data, the significant waterfront advantages of 1052 Rivershore Avenue, and its excellent condition (updated, built 2019), we recommend a starting list price range of $237,500 - $267,500.

This range is carefully calculated to ensure maximum buyer interest and competitive positioning. It allows us to capture attention while remaining grounded in the neighborhood's current appreciation cycle. We are confident that by strategically pricing the listing within this range, we can attract the right buyer at the right time to achieve a swift and successful sale.

MARKET CONDITIONS SUMMARY

The market in the immediate surrounding area is active, with recent comparable sales clustering between $300,000 and $353,500, resulting in a solid average sold price of $328,100. The recent activity confirms that there is consistent buyer interest in single-family homes. The combination of high demand and consistent sales data makes this an ideal time to list, as we are positioned to capture the attention of buyers looking for a premium waterfront lifestyle.